Leaving Certificate Examinations 2024

Dear Parent / Guardian and 6th Year Students,

Please read the following important information regarding the end of year procedures for 6th year students.

Supervised Study for 6th Years

Supervised study will be available for 6th year students, if required, from Tuesday, 28th May until Friday, 31st May during school hours. If attending, students must be in full school uniform and present as usual at the beginning of the school day. More details are available from the 6th Year Year Group Team.

Book Rental Scheme Return

6th year students must return their school textbooks to Book Rental after their last Leaving Certificate exam. Please place the textbooks in a plastic bag or box and make sure to label it with your name and class.

Uniform

After your final Leaving Certificate examination, if you have any items of school uniform that you wish to donate to the school, please drop into the school office. Any items would be greatly appreciated.

Leaving Certificate Examinations

Leaving Certificate Examinations will begin on Wednesday, 5th June. Students are required to wear their school uniform for the duration of the exams and must be in attendance at 9.00am on the first morning of exams. The Leaving Certificate Examination Timetable is available here. The Leaving Certificate Applied Examination Timetable is available here. There is no provision for study in school during the Leaving Certificate examinations.

We wish our 6th year students the very best of luck in their upcoming Leaving Certificate Examinations and we thank you, their parents and guardians for your continued support to Abbey Community College.

Yours faithfully,

Michelle Jefford
